

EGA - WISCONSIN STATE DAY MEETING & WORKSHOP AUGUST 19-21, 2010

HOSTED BY: MADISON AREA CHAPTER – EGA

The Madison Area Chapter is pleased to announce that it will host the EGA Wisconsin State Day 2010 meeting and dinner. Activities will also include a lecture and workshop by national needlework teacher Catherine Jordan.

Save the dates – August 19, 20, 21, 2010

Thursday, August 19, 2010 –“Fabric Painting” – Lecture by Catherine Jordan, on the many possibilities of using textile paints to complement a variety of needlework techniques. You are welcome to attend as guests of the Madison Chapter at its evening meeting.

Friday, August 20, 2010 – State Day Meeting & Dinner – Come join other EGA chapters for dinner followed by a meeting where chapters can share chapter information, education & programming ideas, membership opportunities, etc.

Friday & Saturday, August 20 & 21, 2010 – “Great Lakes Map” - A needlework map workshop with Catherine Jordan. The map depicts the lakes and surrounding areas with details found in vintage pen and ink hand-drawn and painted maps. The water areas will be hand-painted and the maps will be customized to create a wonderful heirloom for each student. A companion friendship booklet cover accompanies the map so that students can practice fabric painting on a smaller piece. Visit Catherine’s website at www.catherinesdesigns.net.

Note : Registration will begin in early 2010. Participants will have the opportunity to sign up for the separate events. (1) State Day meeting and dinner, (2) free lecture, (3) Great Lakes map workshop. The workshop fee will include a workshop fee, kit fee and 2 breakfasts and lunches. A group rate will be available at the Madison Marriott West at $79.00 plus taxes for those who would like to stay at the hotel. More information and registration materials will be available later.
